ANOTHER SCORCHER.

But Not So Hot as Yesterday, Says Mr. Dunn.

Rapid Rise of the Mercury Checked by the Wind.

Prospect of Cooling Showers for This Evening.

Hour.	Therm.	Hour.	Therm.
8 A. M.	74	12 P. M.	85
9 A. M.	75	1 P. M.	86
10 A. M.	76	2 P. M.	87
11 A. M.	77	3 P. M.	88

The highest temperature recorded for July 14 was 100, when the thermometer registered 24 On the same date last year the temperature was 78.

Signal Service Officer Dunn received at least one important communication this morning. It was from his friend, Old Sol:

“This is my day to shine.” Brief and concise.

After beating on the thermometer at the top of the Equitable Building for several hours the sun, by 8 o’clock, had sent the mercury up to a point one degree higher than it was at the same hour yesterday. At 9 o’clock the temperature was two degrees higher, but in the mean time the wind had increased somewhat, and under its cooling influence the thermometer registered 1-2 a degree lower at 10 o’clock than it did twenty-four hours before.

The humidity, whose percentage of late has been about 80, now is about 75.
A civil service examination for Custom-House deputies, is a trifle higher to-day. At 8 o’clock it was 61 per cent. At 9 o’clock it was 62 per cent. At 10 o’clock it was 63 per cent. At 11 o’clock it was 64 per cent. At 12 o’clock it was 65 per cent.

The wind, which was moving suddenly along at the rate of two miles an hour at 8 o’clock, finally got a shove on itself and by 10 o’clock was fairly started in the race and going at a huste miles an hour clip.

In Mr. Dunn’s opinion to-day will not be so warm as yesterday by several degrees.

The warm wave this morning covers the Atlantic coast States where the weather is considerably warmer. It is cooler in the lake regions.

There were a few thunder storms scattered over the Southern States, and the New England States last night, and rainfalls are reported in Florida and the Gulf coast States.

The temperature at Philadelphia at 8 o’clock this morning was 80, Baltimore 82, Washington 81, Chicago 79, St. Paul 64, New Orleans 78, Jacksonville 80. The warmest point was Key West, with a temperature of 84. The coldest was Vincennes, Minn., with 64.

The forecast is for light showers late this afternoon and evening, and cooler weather to-night and to-morrow.

Overcome by the Heat.
Charles Coops, thirty-five years old, of 17 East One Hundred and Seventeenth street, was overcome by the heat at Sixty-eighth street and Third avenue this morning. He was removed to the Presbyterian Hospital.

Weather Forecast.
The weather forecast for the thirty-six hours ending 8 P. M. to-morrow is as follows: Fair to clear, with a few showers late to-morrow evening or to-morrow night; cooler; northwesterly wind.

WITH A KNIFE.
Moses Bertruch’s Unsuccessful Attempt to Commit Suicide.

Moses Bertruch, thirty-two years old, of 425 East Fifty-second street, tried to take his life last night by cutting his throat with a butcher-knife.

Bertruch is a sausage-maker. For several years he has been a sufferer from dyspepsia. During the past few weeks he has been confined to his room, and often complained that he would not suffer much longer.

Just after 11 o’clock last night a tenant in the house, passing through the hall, heard grunts and heard a man groan.
He found the man lying on a bed, the blood flowing from a deep gash in his throat and a keen sausage-knife covered with blood on the floor.

Policeman Schum, of the East Fifty-first street station, was called, and he summoned an ambulance from the Flower Hospital. Ambulance Surgeon Stewart attended the injured man, afterwards taking him to the hospital a prisoner.

This morning Bertruch was doing nicely and will recover. He is unmarried and lived alone.

ENDED LIFE WITH A GUN.
Jacob Reiser, of Secaucus, Killed Himself This Morning.

Jacob Reiser, forty-seven years of age, who resided on the Pen Horn Creek at Secaucus, committed suicide this morning by blowing the top of his head off with a shotgun.

No cause is assigned for the deed.

DR. BROWNE DEFEATED.
Mayor of Yonkers Has Power to Try Charges Against Him.

WHITE PLAINS, July 14.—Judge Dykman in the Supreme Court at White Plains, today handed down a decision deciding that the Mayor of Yonkers has full power and authority to try charges made against Health Officer Browne, who was accused of certifying to a bill of lading of fraud in it, and also of conducting unbecomingly his official position.

Dr. Browne claimed that the Mayor had no authority to hear the charges.
Health Officer appeared to Judge Dykman for his decision in the matter.

Little Mamee Dead.

Hamilton West, ten years old, died in the Harlem Hospital this morning from a fractured skull.
His father is captain of a coal barge lying at the foot of East One Hundred and Sixth street.
White Mamee was sitting on the deck of the barge last night when she was struck by a falling beam and struck her on the head. The coroner has notified.

A FORK IN HER SKULL.
Mrs. Taylor Dying from a Beautiful Inane Girl’s Blow.

Kate Witman, the Assailant, Is but Nineteen Years Old.

Dramatic Studies Said to Have Destroyed Her Reason.

Miss Kate Witman, a handsome young woman of nineteen years, is a raving maniac in St. Catherine’s Hospital, Willamsburg, and in an adjoining ward, Mrs. Mary Taylor, a neighbor, lies dying.

The two women reside in the flat-house 68 Scholes street, and have always been good friends. About 8 o’clock last night there was a knock at Mrs. Taylor’s door and when she opened it Kate Witman rushed in.

“After many years I will have my revenge,” she hissed melodramatically, and then, lifting a fork she had in her hand, she struck so violent a blow at Mrs. Taylor that the fork entered her skull and one of the prongs remains imbedded there.

Neighbors notified the police and Miss Witman was taken to the Nineteenth precinct station. During the night the Matron heard a peculiar noise from the cell, and as she promptly investigated, she found the woman in a violent fit.
Miss Witman had hanged herself from the cell door with part of her clothing, and when the Matron appeared was black in the face.

Afterwards Kate became so violent that she was removed to the hospital.

It is stated that Miss Witman has been studying to be an actress, and that she took so much interest in her work that it has driven her insane. This is the only way that her attack on her friend, Mrs. Taylor, can be explained.

MURDERER SHOT BY HIS WIFE.

Logan Had Killed a Stage Driver and a Passenger.

Woman Avenge the Victim of Her Husband’s Jealousy.

(By Associated Press.)
LOVELOCK, Nev., July 14.—Three men were killed near here Thursday night, as the result of a husband’s jealousy. Robert Logan shot and killed Dan Lovelock and Fred Sullivan, and was in turn killed by his own wife.

Mrs. Logan had been a sufferer from dyspepsia. During the past few weeks he has been confined to his room, and often
complained that he would not suffer much longer.

Just after 11 o’clock last night a tenant
in the house, passing through the hall,
